TFG Acquires Artisan Cosmetic and Rejuvenation Clinic in Fortitude Valley, QLD

30th October 2017

Total Face Group Ltd (ASX:TFG) (“TFG” or “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has completed the acquisition of Artisan Cosmetic and Rejuvenation Clinic in Fortitude Valley, QLD (Artisan) as announced to the market on 21st August 2017.

TFG Chief Executive Officer Joanne Hannah said:

“I am delighted that Dr Linda Williams and her team at Artisan will be joining Total Face Group. This is our first acquisition in Queensland post COZmedics when Dr Angela Richardson and Dr Alison Jamieson and their respective teams joined TFG in July of last year.”

“We now have 4 clinics in Queensland and a very strong presence in what we see as an important geography for our business. The Artisan acquisition continues our strategy of building a network of premium, non-invasive aesthetic clinics and currently operates across all three of our core modalities – cosmetic injectables, skin solutions and coolsculpting.”

Dr Linda Williams from Artisan said:

“My team and I are equally delighted to be joining Total Face Group.”

“Artisan is a cosmetic clinic with a difference; created for people who want only the best for their face, skin and body. We understand that every patient is unique and we refuse to cut corners by offering a one-size-fits-all approach. Our clinicians tailor every treatment to the individual to achieve the natural-looking results that our patients love.”

“I feel that what we have achieved over the past 15 years aligns very nicely with TFG’s vision and I am looking forward to continuing the journey and joining forces with so many of my long-term industry colleagues under one umbrella.”
